

③ IPBES global assessment presents evidence about the importance of raising the level of implementation in partnership with indigenous peoples and local communities.