

Travel tips with starting point Trondheim

Trondheim – Trollstigen – Geiranger – Dalsnibba – Lom – Trondheim

Take a drive and experience the beautiful fjords and dramatic mountain landscapes! Can be done in two days, and we recommend that you spend the night in the town of Geiranger. Drive from Trondheim via Hjerkin and Dombås to Åndalsnes. This is National Park country! At Hjerkin you could stop at viewpoint Snøhætta where the muskox can be seen. From Åndalsnes you drive up the Trollstigen (Troll ladder) mountain pass (via the ferry across the fjord from Valldal to Eidsdal) to Geiranger. In town you can take a spectacular walk up the mountain sides or take a guided tour on the fjord. Accommodation includes hotel, cabins and camping. From Geiranger you drive up to Dalsnibba viewpoint before driving towards the town of Lom. Be sure to visit the stave church in Lom. The town has a nice feel to it and it is nice to have a walk around. They have a nice bakery too! Then you drive further on to Dombås, then via Hjerkin and Oppdal before arriving back in Trondheim. See map and pictures below. 😊

Link to more travel information: <https://www.visitnorway.com/?lang=uk>

Viewpoint Snøhætta, Dovre Mountains with National Parks

Trollstigen mountain pass

Geiranger fjord and town

Dalsnibba viewpoint

Lom stave church

Trondheim
Conferences on Biodiversity

